

10. The Sacraments, source of life

"I have come that they may have life, and have it abundantly."

(John 10:10)

LIFE EVENT

The seed shop

A woman dreamed that she entered a shop in the market and surprisingly found God serving her.

"What do you sell here?" he asked.

"Everything your heart desires!" God replied.

Barely believing what she was hearing, the lady decided to ask for the best.

that could desire a human being.

"I want a peaceful mind, love, happiness, wisdom, and freedom from fear," she said. Then she added, "not just for myself, but for everyone in the world."

God smiled, saying:

I don't think you've understood me, woman, we don't sell the fruits here, we only sell the seeds.

God offers us everything for our happiness, but He doesn't offer everything predetermined.

They never sell you ready-made love; they offer you a seed, which are the sacraments, and He plants it in your heart; which you must water and cultivate lovingly; which you must preserve from the frosts and defend from the cold, and which, finally, late, very late, who knows in what spring, will end up blooming and giving you abundant fruits.

WE SHARE:

1. What do you think of this story?
2. Can we compare it to our lives?
3. Do you believe we are called to bear fruit? What kind of fruit?

THE WORD OF GOD

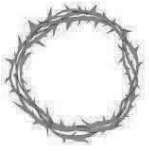

"The text underlines the need to remain in Jesus, since this is the only way for the disciple to produce the fruits of love that The Father, the Vinedresser, awaits.

According to the text we have read:

WE FOUND OUT:

1. What does the text make you think?
2. What would you say in response to this invitation?

WEEKLY GOAL

The Sacraments are a source of life because:

Sacraments of initiation:

1. Baptism, 2. Confirmation and 4. Eucharist.

Sacraments of healing: 3.

Penance and 5. Anointing of the Sick

Sacraments of service: 6. Holy

Orders and 7. Matrimony

Write the number of the sacrament it represents below each drawing.