

31. Pentecost

"The Risen Jesus breathes on them, saying: Receive the Spirit Holy" (Jn. 20,19)

LIFE EVENT

"When the day of Pentecost came, they were all together in one place. Suddenly a sound like the blowing of a violent wind came from heaven and filled the whole house where they were sitting. They saw what seemed to be tongues of fire that separated and came to rest on each of them."

speaking in different languages, as the Spirit enabled them to express themselves.

There were devout Jews in Jerusalem from every nation.

of the world. Upon hearing that noise, the crowd gathered and was filled with surprise, because each one heard them speaking in his own language. With great wonder and amazement they said, "Aren't all these men who are speaking Galileans? How is it that each of us hears them in our own language? Parthians, Medes, and Elamites, we who live in Mesopotamia and Judea itself, Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia Minor, Phrygia, pilgrims from Rome, Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabs, we all heard them proclaim in the Our tongues speak the wonders of God.
