THE WORD OF GOD

1. Genesis 12:1-4

The Lord said to Abram:

-Leave your country, your family, and your father's house, and go to the land I will show you. I will make you into a great nation, and I will bless you and make your name great, so that you will be a blessing.

I will bless those who bless you, but I will curse those who curse you.

All the families in the country will use your name to bless themselves.

Abram went as the Lord had told him, and Lot went with him. Abram was seventy-five years old when he left Haran.

2. Ex 3, 1-10

Moses was tending the flock of his father-in-law Jethro, the priest of Midian. One day,

While leading the flock through the wilderness, he came to Horeb, the mountain of God. There the angel of the Lord appeared to him in a flame from within a thicket.

Moses looked and saw that the hedge was on fire, but it was not being consumed. He said to himself, "I will go over and see this strange sight: what is it that is causing this fire?"

"Why does the hedge not wither?" When the Lord saw that

Moses approached to look, and the cry from the bush was:

-Moses, Moses!

He replied:

-I'm here.

God said to him:

-Don't come any closer. Take off your sandals, the place you're standing on is sacred.

And he added:

-I am the God of your father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.

Moses covered his face because he was afraid to look at God. The Lord said to him:

I have indeed seen the oppression of my people in Egypt, and I have heard them crying out because of their slave drivers. I am concerned about their suffering; therefore I have come down to deliver them from the power of the Egyptians and to bring them up out of Egypt to a good and spacious land, a land flowing with milk and honey: the land of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Hittites, and the Jebusites. The cry of the Israelites has reached me, and I have seen how the Egyptians are oppressing them. Now therefore, I am sending you to Pharaoh; go and bring the Israelites, my people, out of Egypt.

3. Mt 11 25-27

At that time, Jesus said:

I praise you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because you have revealed to the simple what you have hidden from the wise and learned. Yes, Father, for this is what you were pleased to do.

"The Father has put everything in my hands. No one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son and those to whom the Son chooses to reveal him."

4. Mc 6, 30-34

The apostles gathered around Jesus and told him all they had done and taught. He said to them:

-Come now, alone in an uninhabited place, and replenish your supplies. Because so many people were coming and going, they didn't have any time left. no food.

So they went alone in the boat to an uninhabited place. But they saw them leave, and many knew it; of all the People ran on foot there and arrived before them.

When Jesus landed, he saw a large crowd and had compassion on them, because they were like sheep without a shepherd; and he began to teach them at length.
