

7. How to read the Word of God

In the beginning there was the One who is the Word.

The Word was with God, and the Word was God. (John 1:1)

THE WORD OF GOD

“Just as rain and snow come down from the sky and do not return there without leaving it to have soaked the soil, without having fertilized it and made it germinate, so that he may give seed to the sower and bread to the eater, so it is with the Word that comes out of my mouth: it does not return to me until it fulfills its purpose and the will of the Lord (Isaiah 55:10-11).”

When I found your words I devoured them, your words were my Joy and gladness of my heart, because I have been called by your name, Lord, God of the armies. (Jer 15, 16)

That young people may recognize the effectiveness and relevance of the Word of God, by drawing closer to it through prayerful, personal and communal reading... “And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us” (Jn 1:14)

WE FOUND OUT:

1. How is it that the words of the Bible are still relevant today?
2. Who wrote the Bible? And what inspired the authors?

WEEKLY GOAL

HOW TO READ THE WORD OF GOD?

1 - Begin by praying to the Holy Spirit; so that he may help us to interpret that Word which he himself inspired.

2 - After proclaiming it clearly, let's take some time to ask ourselves What This Word says: what are the images it proposes, what are the verbs, what Expressions that catch our attention, what we don't understand, what surprises us, what they are like Words that come from a culture and a time distant from our own, we have to get used to.

3 - How do I respond to this challenge the Lord poses to us? Always, always draw a purpose. _____

4 – Imagine that we are present at the place where the events are happening. Imagine that We participated like a movie.

5 – Give thanks to God for the ideas that have come to mind.
